

Do not allow cell phones to be used on aircraft. The invasion of whatever privacy remains while stopped in at 30,00 feet would lead to additional confrontations among the traveling public. We already are subjected to search and investigation throughout the travel process. Let's continue to keep the cabin a no cell phone area.

Robert J. Klem